

Anderson Coil Weight 0930

The Anderson Coil weight has been developed to help with coil buoyancy issues found with some metal detector coils. Proper use of this coil weight when detecting in water will reduce arm fatigue. The core of the weight is made from all natural material with a poly-plastic coating. The coil weight is made from a fragile material and should be handled with care. Attach weight to your coil with zip ties provided.

Anderson Detector Shafts
P.O. Box 727
Ridgeway, ON
L0S 1N0